"For many years, NC State alumni have wanted a place to call home. Now, we have that opportunity. It is going to take a financial commitment from each of us to make that opportunity a reality. Every ACC university has an outstanding Alumni Center. Ours is long overdue, and this one we can really be proud of."

At NC State, we're building your home on a bluff that overlooks Lake Raleigh and the Centennial Campus community.

The 60,000-square-foot Dorothy and Roy Park Alumni Center will be your on-campus destination for reunions, postgame receptions, parties, seminars ... or a walk down memory lane with a cup of coffee and a stack of Agromeck yearbooks.

The ground floor will host wedding receptions and other private parties. With two-story windows opening onto the lake, the grand reception area will create generations of happy memories for NC State's alumni family. A bar and grill area, as well as meeting rooms, will be located on the perimeter of the ground floor.

On the second floor, the chancellor and other administrators will host meetings and dinners for special occasions: entertaining potential donors, interviewing faculty applicants or conducting meetings of the Board of Trustees. The Alumni Association will have its own boardroom as well as an office suite for the executive director.

The third floor will house the Alumni Association staff with room to grow. As a visitor, you can check in with the offices of the Caldwell Fellows Program or Alumni Career Services, or you can search your NC State family roots in a library equipped with Internet access, yearbooks dating to 1900 and alumni magazines nearly a century old.

Throughout the Park Alumni Center, first-class facilities speak to the stature and renown that NC State has achieved internationally. But above all else, this is your home. No institution can succeed without the involvement of its alumni family—and NC State, with its land-grant mission to serve and to solve, has a special kinship with its graduates and the people of North Carolina.

Private gifts will pay the $20 million needed for the Park Alumni Center. Please support our campus home, which will serve alumni of today and generations to come.
